Establishment of a Social Hygiene Council in the State

The tone of the recommendations of the British Social Hygiene Council.

The Civic & Social Service Professional Association to whom the question was referred, considered that a council can only be formed if the Govt. grant adequate funds & the Dept. concerned the President. They have now been asked to state what grant is expected from Govt. It appears necessary to pursue the question & I enclose reminders.

IV. Read letter No. 2364-6 dated the 10th September 1950 from the Chief Secretary to Government requesting to be informed of the further action taken for the formation of the Social Hygiene Council in Mysore. Read also the reply received from Mr. J. Harvey on the subject.

Resolved that Government be informed that the Social Hygiene Council for Mysore, if it is to function efficiently, should be run under the auspices of the Government with the Dewan as its President and that it should receive a sufficient grant of money from the Government until sufficient donations and subscriptions are collected and that unless these requirements are fulfilled, it does not serve any useful purpose to run the organisation as it will neither be powerful enough nor have sufficient funds to do the necessary work effectively.

Chief Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No: 2964-6 dated 10th September 1930 requesting to be informed of the further action taken in regard to the formation of the Social Hygiene Council for Mysore, I am desired to state that the Committee of the Association are of opinion that the Government may be pleased to make an adequate grant to the Council in the first instance to start the work and that the Dewan may be graciously pleased to become the President of the Council. Unless these two requirements are fulfilled and the Council commences its work under such favourable condition and high auspices, it cannot possibly function efficiently and attract donations and subscriptions from private sources. If it is run without the benefit of such encouragement, it will neither be powerful ough nor ~~nor~~ have sufficient funds to do the necessary work effectively.

I have the honour tobe

Sir
Your most obedient servent

Honorary Secretary.
